any form erodes the mutual trust and confidence that are essential to the well-being of staff and is considered unacceptable.

DEFINITIONS

“workplace violence” is defined in the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA) as:

- The exercise of physical force by a person against a worker, in a workplace, that could cause physical injury to the worker.

“domestic violence” is a pattern of behaviour used by one person to gain power over another with whom they have or have had an intimate relationship. It may include physical violence, sexual, emotional or psychological intimidation, verbal abuse, stalking or the use of electronic devices to harass and control.

“workplace harassment” is engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct directed at a worker.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Location of the workplace
- Parking
- Access to workplace
- Handling cash
- Working alone

1.2 Responsibilities/Duties of the Board, Principals and Worker

SGDSB staff shall identify the risks of workplace violence or harassment occurring on Board premises, or while engaging in workplace activities. An assessment of the risk should include a rating of the risk of workplace violence or harassment taking place in a given workplace. A suggested rating scale follows in Appendix A.

1.2.1 Duties of the Employer

- to provide information and instruction to the worker in regards to workplace violence and harassment
- create policies and procedures to be followed by all staff
- to provide training on policies and procedures to all staff
- to take every precaution reasonable to protect the worker from violence and harassment
- to conduct a workplace violence risk assessment

1.2.2 Duties of the Principal

- to advise the staff of the existence of any potential or actual threat or occurrence of violence to the worker
- provide the worker with written instructions as to the measures that need to be taken for their protection
- take every precaution reasonable in the circumstance for the protection of the worker
- to review and assess risk factors as they arise

1.2.3 Duties of the Worker

- work in compliance with the provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the Regulations
- report to their principal any threats/or possible threats of violence / harassment to himself/herself or

- areas on the periphery of the workplace (parking lots, portable in playing fields),
- controls on entry to the workplace, use of the workplace by non-employees (community groups).

1.3.2 General Workplace

- risk of workplace violence occurring due to the characteristics of the general workplace population, including staff, students, parents and the general public.

1.3.3 Specific Workplace

- risk of workplace violence occurring due to individual students, clients, or employees who create specific risk of workplace violence (students, clients, or employees with a history of violence).

2.0 Records

All correspondence and other documents generated under this procedure must, subject to the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, be marked authenticity is proven as a result of an investigation, then said individual may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the appropriate Collective Agreement and the SGDSB policies governing such matters.

Should the individual who commits a reprisal against an employee who filed a report in good faith be someone other than an employee of the SGDSB and the reprisal's authenticity

In the event a worker or accused has one or both of the specific concerns listed above, a request, in writing within twenty school days of the receipt of the decision of the person conducting the investigation, may be made to the Director or designate to convene an appeal.

The Director or designate will affirm or amend the final decision or require that a new investigation be undertaken.

5.3 Mediated Resolution

Mediation involves an unbiased third party acting as a facilitator in direct communication between the parties who voluntarily agree to enter into this process. It is an opportunity to resolve disputes in a respectful manner. It provides the opportunity to generate a variety of options for resolution and contributes to restoring the working relationship between parties.

Mediation is appropriate when all parties agree that a mutually agreeable solution is achievable and desirable. Mediation is voluntary and the worker and accused may choose to withdraw at any time. The peTw 2.54TJ 0 Tc 0 Tw 4.326 0 Td (cu(.>BDC -0.002

SURVEY

Superior-Greenstone District School Board

EMPLOYEE SURVEY – WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PROGRAM

The School Board recognizes that workplace violence represents a real risk. The Board also recognizes that the risk can be minimized or avoided by assessing the risks, putting preventive measures in place to control them, as well as by implementing processes to obtain immediate assistance in case of violence or to report incidences of violence and by keeping staff abreast of potential dangers in the workplace.

In order to identify these risks, the School Board asks that all employees complete the following survey.

The School Board assures all employees that information provided in this survey will be kept strictly confidential. Furthermore, it is left to the discretion of the employee to provide his or her name. However, the location (school, administrative office or satellite office) must be provided, in order to be able to identify developing trends or if an issue is directly related to that place of employment.
